SEVERE CENSURE OF M'KINLEY. Indignation in Berlin Over the American Policy in China.

Herlin, Sept. 24.—(Copyright, 1802, by W. R. Hourst.)-Great indignation prevails here in official and political circles against Presdent McKinley. He is charged, not merely conversation, but likewise in print, with abordinating not merely the interests of America in China but those of the entire ivilized world to seifish considerations in regard to his re-election.

He is even accused of having manipulat a the disputches of Minister Conger and of Special Commissioner Bookhill and of dis torting the sense of the messages with this

It is asserted here that both Mr. Rockfell and Minister Conger are known to have Pennsylvania Executive Cannot stated explicitly in their disputches that the Empress Dowager and the Imperial Gov ernment ordered the outrages on the forigners and were wholly responsible for them, yet that President McKinley, whose role object is to get American troops out of China before the election comes on in the United States, refuses to accept these as-sertions of his duly accredited agents and the differences between the mine workers prefers to enter into diplomatic relations and operators in the authracite region with the real authors of the massacres rather than face in the syes of the American tunion authorizing the executive to exercise lectorate the responsibility for the course upon which he embarked the United States in China.
